

Call for Candidates

Job title: Digital and Communications Manager, Northern Dimension Partnership on Culture Secretariat (75 % position)

Location: Riga, Latvia

Key relationships: You will work closely with the NDPC Secretariat Director and EUNIC/NDPC Project Coordinator and Manager

About the role

You are excited by the power of social and digital media. You are creative and understand how to represent a trusted brand online and are experienced in producing a range of forward-thinking professional content for social media and digital formats. You are eager to explore the possibilities of social media within an organisation and find new ways of making digital content to deliver real benefits to our stakeholders.

As a Digital and Communications Manager, you will support us in our aim to enhance dialogue and practical cooperation between actors in the cultural and creative industries sectors from Northern Dimension countries. Moreover, you will provide support to the team and ensure that social media and digital tools are at the heart of our communication campaigns. You will be playing a key role in managing our online community and keeping both our stakeholders and members up to date.

To succeed in this role, you will need:

- An entrepreneurial mindset, be self-driven and have passion for Cultural and Creative Industries;
- A willingness to roll up your sleeves and get work done;
- Excellent written and oral communication skills in English (you must love writing and storytelling!);
- Experience creating compelling content and campaigns across a variety of channels and tools (using social media channels and other tools)
- To work well in a creative environment where you can be a trusted colleague and take the lead on comms activities (such as open calls, outreach to stakeholders, website, community building, and publications and reports);
- Have structure and ability to plan your own work and own processes.
- Be hands on and support colleagues in organisation of events and workshops (yes, international travel is to be expected)

We are a small dynamic team working in the cultural and creative sectors in the 11 countries of the Northern Dimension region. We are open to people with different experiences: for example, from communications (internal or external), marketing or media or other relevant sectors. However, you would need to have a minimum of 3-5 years relevant work experience. Passion for communications, outreach and engagement through digital tools is to be valued.

Key to this role is ensuring that:

- CCI stakeholders and our members in the region get timely, useful information about our activities;
- There is more proactive communication and engagement that flows both ways;
- The team have the support they need in communicating about their working areas and current opportunities.

General Conditions

- Our working language is English, so you should have excellent command of it. Russian is an asset but not mandatory.

- Starting date: 15 September 2021 or as soon as possible

- Employment conditions: 2-year contract (with a possibility of extension) under Latvian law. The employee will be based at the NDPC Secretariat in Riga. Applicants must have a valid working permit to work in the EU.

- Remuneration: NDPC offers a contract with competitive annual gross salary plus other benefits. Salary is agreed upon according to the job profile and years of professional experience of the selected candidate, in line with the organisation's remuneration policy.

How to apply:

- If you are interested in this position, please send your CV and motivation letter in English to recruitment@ndpculture.org, with in the subject line "Digital and Communications Manager" by 20 August 2021 by 14:00 CET
- Your motivation letter (max. 1 x A4 page in length) should explain why you are applying for the position and how will you communicate about the work of NDPC.

Selected candidates will be invited for an interview in the week of 25 August 2021. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.
